

- Multi-pitch tread design with computer simulation curbs noise generation.
- Sipe design on the tread shoulder reduces noise generated from shoulder block.
- Two broad circumferential grooves were designed to enhance drainage efficiency, and also provide better grip on wet road condition.
- Sipe design on pattern blocks were designed to lower block stiffness and road impact from friction for getting better riding comfort.