There are many good reasons to drive a tire from GT Radial:

- engineered in Germany
- established worldwide for over 25 years
- DEKRA proofed quality
- excellent value of money

The New European Technical Centre in Hanover

In Hanover Germany we carry out extensive research and development of new products, designs and ideas. This team is part of over 600 Giti Tire R&D engineers located around the world, working on new innovations in fuel economy, product quality and tyre safety.

Stefan Fischer, Managing Director Giti Tire Europe Product Technology

“At our new R&D centre in Hanover, we have a multinational team with leading experts from a wide range of disciplines including tyre engineering, tread design and compound development. In cooperation with our Global R&D platforms, the development of tyres in Europe for Europe, is a clear focus for GT Radial.”
