

- Optimized profile design increases the tire rigidity and driving stability.
- The tread surface is enlarged and the shoulder groove is reduced to give better maneuverability.
- 5 pitches block design is adopted to reduce the noise generation.
- Noise prevention bar is created on the shoulder to prevent premature wear and to reduce the road noise generation.